Educational Leadership

Course supervisor or coordinator or convener

I run a Surgical Leadership course for all core trainees in our School of Surgery. I help co-ordinate the delivery of the core surgical curriculum through the Deanery Surgical Training Programme

Development of courses, teaching materials & assessment tools

I devised the Surgical Leadership course and have developed local higher general surgical training days. I have lead a local annual Basic Surgical Skills Course for six years and continue to teach on local surgery training programmes.

As Head of School of Surgery (SoS) I have developed a Prize Presentation Day which is held annually for trainees. The President of Royal College of Surgeons of England and other Council members have attended. (2007-now). We have an annual Induction Day at the Royal College of Surgeons of England which has been held for the last 3 years. I developed this with the Exec St Group.

I manage the School's budget with an annual business plan (08-now). I liaise with the medical workforce officer's regarding the recruitment and selection of Surgical Tutors. I am a College External Assessor. I attend and partake annually at the BMJ Careers Fair

Training Programme Director

I have been Surgical Tutor 2001-2005.

Post-graduate Dean

I am Head of School of Surgery and an Associate Dean I take part in Deanery, College, National and International meetings and committees related to postgraduate surgical education. The SoS has been recognised by the College of Surgeons Eng and GMC as having many areas of best practice;- for curriculum implementation at CSTC Forum (RCS 08,09) by Head of Joint Committee of Surgical Training (JCST) and at Regional Representative Meeting (RCS Nov 09).

I chaired the Core Surgical Training Cttee (CSTC) which sits 5 x/year. All Surgical Tutors are asked to attend. I chair the executive surgical strategy group which plans educational strategy for the School. Membership includes the Dean, RCS Council Member and Regional Co-Ordinator and Training Programme Directors (TPD's) (06-now).

I manage the Training Programmes for 112 Core Trainees and am developing the Training Programmes for 197 higher surgical trainees (T&O, general surgery, OMFS, ENT, urology).

I have been Chair of the Confederation of Postgraduate Schools of Surgery (CoPSS). The Heads of School of Surgery meet 2-3x/year and the role also involves representing Heads of School at JCST (meets 4x/year) and being an invited member on the Council of the English College of Surgeons.

Other formal responsible position in training or education

1 National Core Surgery Selection for the NHS

Since 20XX I have chaired and lead on the National Recruitment Project for National Selection for Core Surgery. I also chair the Steering Group and have talked at various communications meetings at the College, Department of Health and deanery meetings. In our first year we have achieved a 100% fill rate. This has dramatically reduced consultant time at interview panels and has improved the candidates' experience of the selection process.

I sit on the Selection Board for ST3 in general surgery.

2 Royal Society of Medicine (RSM)

I have been President and sat on the Council for the Clinical Section of the Royal Society of Medicine, and now sit on Council for the Section of Coloproctology. I attend the meetings and mark submitted abstracts and mark the presentations at RSM meetings.

I was elected as Secretary to the Section of Coloproctology at the Royal Society of Medicine (RSM). I have been a council member for 5 years. In my secretarial year I have helped organise the teaching days, presentation days and the 2 day overseas meeting with German colleagues in Berlin which included an educational symposium.

3 Association of Coloproctology of Great Britain and Ireland (ACGBI)

I sit on the education committee and am currently looking at chapter and deanery boundaries and the delivery of the colorectal curriculum across the UK.

I sat on the Council of the Association of Coloproctology, and have organised and chaired regional meetings. I sat on the PR & Ethics committee for the Association.

I sat on the Council of the Association of Coloproctology when I was regional Chapter representative for South Thames.
